Read and Understand the Rules for 2008 Ohio State Fair Junior Fair Dog Show Participation to make sure you and/or your dog are eligible for each class entered.

Rules to Remember When Entering Dogs and Classes:

1. You must complete a Drill Team Entry Form if you are showing one of the above dogs or a different dog in Drill Team competition. Alternates must register on the Drill Team Entry Form, postmarked by July 11, to avoid paying a late fee.
2. You must complete a Poster Entry Form if you plan to enter the State Fair Dog Show Poster Contest. Poster Entry Forms and Posters must be sent to Lucinda Miller by July 11.
3. If showing in Agility, you must complete an Agility Entry Form and submit it, along with processing fees, by July 16. You may enter any number of project dogs in Agility.
4. You and Your Dog (formerly Dog Care) Judging is Friday, August 1, during Companion Animal Day Judging, in the Youth Discovery Center. If you are showing in You and Your Dog, either J-YD1 (Junior Y&YD), J-YD2 (Intermediate Y&YD), or J-YD3 (Senior Y&YD), YOU CANNOT SHOW THAT SAME DOG OR ANY OTHER DOG IN ANY OTHER CLASSES AT THE STATE FAIR DOG SHOW, including agility, any obedience, showmanship, rally, team, brace, assistance dogs, drill team, and freestyle. You can enter the poster contest and participate in the You and Your Dog Skillathon, and are eligible for OSF Championship Title points.
5. Assistance Dogs can ONLY be shown in J-19, the Assistance Dog class. If you are showing an Assistance Dog, you can show other project dog(s) in eligible classes.
6. You can show more than one project dog, except if you are showing in You and Your Dog.
 - You can show different dogs in different levels of obedience provided you and your dog(s) are eligible to show at those levels. For example, one dog might be eligible to be shown in Sub-Novice B and a second dog eligible to be shown in Novice A (if you or that dog have never shown in Novice classes or above). A second example: One dog might be eligible to be shown in Novice B, a second dog eligible for Graduate Open B, and a third dog eligible for Open A (if you or your dog have never shown in Open classes or above). Make sure you and your dog are eligible for the obedience classes you enter. Once you and your dog have shown in an "A" class, you and your dog can never show in that same "A" class or any lower obedience classes again. If you have a second or a new dog, you can never show in an "A" class that you have previously shown in, even with the second or a new dog. You must show in the "B" class that your dog is eligible for. A dog can NEVER show in a lower level class once it has competed at that level. If a dog has a different handler, that dog must be shown in the class it is eligible for. For Example: A 10-year old child is showing a dog that was last shown at the Graduate Novice A level. That child and dog must now show at the Graduate Novice B level, because of the dog's level of experience.
 - You can show the same or a different dog in Showmanship (formerly Grooming and Handling). You can show only ONE dog in Showmanship because of the age level restrictions. For example: You are 16 years old and you OR your dog has Showmanship experience. You MUST show in J-18 Showmanship Sr. B. Even if your dog does not have experience at that level, you do, so you must enter J-18.
 - You can show the same or a different project dog in Drill Team, Brace, Team, Rally, and Freestyle provided you and your dog meet eligibility requirements.
 - You may enter two project dogs per Rally class.
7. Canine Freestyle is for exhibition only this year. If you do not enter by July 11 and decide you want to demonstrate a freestyle routine, you may sign up the day of this class.
