OHIO BERRY FIELD NIGHT

AUGUST 28, 2024 5-9 p.m.

Hosted by Dr. Gary Gao,

Professor and Extension Specialist

Come join us for an informative field night featuring information to benefit both beginner and advanced growers, and to teach you proven techniques to maximize production and quality in your plantings and vineyards.

Areas of focus during this event will include:

- Orange rust-resistant cultivars
- Cover crop and beneficial microbes for tomatoes
- Long Cane Raspberry production system
- Hardy fig production
- Table and wine grape production

This field night is supported in part by OPGMA-OVSFRDP through a blackberry grant; USDA-NIFA through a tomato research grant; Ohio Department of Agriculture and USDA through a Specialty Crop Block Grant for our raspberry research and Extension grant; and Ohio Grape Industries Committee through a Viticulture Extension grant.
