Raspberry and Grape Field Night

AUGUST 4, 2022 • 5:30-8 p.m.

Hosted by Dr. Gary Gao,

Professor and Extension Specialist

Ryan Slaughter, Research Assistant

Come join us for an informative field night featuring information to benefit both beginner and advanced growers, and to teach you proven techniques to maximize production and quality in your raspberry plantings and grape vineyards. This field night is supported in part by an Ohio Specialty Crop Grant from Ohio Department of Agriculture and a viticulture extension grant from Ohio Grape Industries Committee

Areas of focus during this event will include:

- Summer and fall management of grapevines
- Overview and demonstration of Long-Cane Raspberry Production System
- A wagon tour of elderberry, hardy fig, and hardy kiwi plantings

Register by visiting:
